Introduction

In Hong Kong, the service provided by estate agency companies is of great public interest as most property transactions are brought about by the estate agents or salespersons they employ, and these transactions could mean the lifelong savings of some vendors or purchasers. While competition for business may be intense, it is important that all estate agency companies, estate agents and salespersons work in an honest, prudent and caring manner to protect their clients' best interest. The Estate Agents Authority ("the EAA") and the Corruption Prevention Department of the Independent Commission Against Corruption ("ICAC") have therefore jointly compiled this Best Practice Checklist¹ ("BPC") for reference and use by all estate agents, salespersons and estate agencies. The BPC provides a user-friendly directory of the practical measures to help estate agencies foster good governance, remind their staff to adopt proper and ethical practices for handling property transactions, and put in place effective internal control to prevent corruption and other malpractices.

A broad range of issues are covered in this BPC. Chapters 1 and 2 outline the legislation and ethical requirements that a professional estate agency practitioner should comply with. Chapter 3 describes the responsibilities of the estate agency management. Chapter 4 provides practical guidelines for frontline practitioners in carrying out their day-to-day estate agency work. Chapters 5 and 6 address the internal administration of estate agencies.

Purpose and Objective

With the aim of promoting professionalism and quality in estate agency practice, this BPC provides advice and recommendations on the best practices (i.e. procedures meeting a high standard of professional competence and ethical behaviour) for estate agency practitioners' continuous improvement rather than mandatory and binding standards. Hence, it would be desirable for licensees to follow the best practices, and estate agency companies may adopt the procedures and standards of practice set out in the BPC according to their own needs and resources.

Licensees are also reminded that they are obliged at all times to observe and comply with the law and, in particular, the Estate Agents Ordinance and its subsidiary legislation, and the Code of Ethics and practice circulars issued by the EAA.

Acknowledgements

For the purpose of compiling this BPC, reference has been made to previous ICAC cases and the EAA's inquiry hearing cases. In addition, some of the guidelines and best practices are based on the information and advice provided in the guidance note on RICS Real Estate Agency and Brokerage Standards² ("RICS REABS") issued by the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors ("RICS"). Finally, a number of estate agency practitioners, the office bearers of some trade associations in the industry, RICS and Professor Eddie Hui of the Hong Kong Polytechnic University have been consulted. Their input and efforts are gratefully acknowledged.

| ☐ Remind sub-purchasers of the risks involved in confirmor sales, including but not limited to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ The transaction may be delayed or even fall through if the confirmor is unable to complete the purchase. The sub-purchaser may have to take legal action to recover the deposits and claim damages against the confirmor. ◆ The sub-purchaser may request the confirmor to execute an irrevocable power of attorney in favour of the sub-purchaser so that if the confirmor is unable to complete the purchase himself, the sub-purchaser may still complete the transaction as the attorney of the confirmor. The sub-purchaser should seek legal advice in this regard. ◆ Inspection of the property is usually not available before entering into a sub-sale agreement, and the sub-purchaser may have to bear such risks. The agent however should try to arrange for an inspection before completion. ◆ The sub-sale agreement is normally subject to the terms of the principal agreement for sale and purchase (e.g. acceptance of structural alterations (if any) in the principal agreement). | ✓ | ✓ |

⁹ Also known as "sub-sale"; it occurs when a purchaser who has entered into a Sale and Purchase Agreement with a property owner, sub-sells the property to another purchaser (the sub-purchaser) before completion of the assignment. The first purchaser is referred to as the "confirmor".

	Company	Staff
☐ Note whether the balance of the purchase price payable by the sub-purchaser is sufficient to cover the balance of the purchase price payable by the confirmor to the head vendor under the principal agreement.	✓	✓
☐ Provide a confirmor with sufficient time to settle payment if he is required to pay the balance of the purchase price payable by the sub-purchaser to the head vendor, and advise the confirmor that the completion time for sub-sale agreement should precede that of the principal agreement for sale and purchase.	✓	✓
☐ Carry out a land search of the property before arranging for the confirmor and the sub-purchaser to enter into a subsale agreement to ensure that the confirmor has the right to sub-sell the property and check the terms of the agreement (including any restriction on sub-sale).	✓	✓
☐ Provide for the sub-purchaser's reference a copy of the principal agreement between the principal vendor and the confirmor before a sub-sale agreement is signed.	✓	✓
☐ Disclose to all parties any commission receivable by the company if an agent acts for both the principal vendor and the confirmor, and also for both the confirmor and the sub-purchaser, including disclosure to the head vendor any commission receivable from the confirmor and the sub-purchaser.	✓	✓
☐ Note that if an agent himself or a related person fraudulently participates in a confirmor sale, he may have committed the offence of fraud under the Theft Ordinance or other offences, in addition to putting himself in a serious conflict of interest situation.	✓	✓

4.15	Sale and Purchase of Property by Way of Transfer of Shares (🚩The EAA's Practice Circular no. 05-08 (CR))
	☐ Do not arrange any property transaction which involves a transfer of shares without having obtained legal advice.	✓	✓
	☐ Note that an agreement for the sale and purchase of shares is a complicated legal document and purchasers may unwittingly take over the debts and liabilities of a limited company that are associated with a transfer of the shares and business undertaking of that limited company, and may subsequently lead to complications in the financing of the purchase.	✓	✓
4.16	Takeover of Business and Related Tenancy (🚩The EAA's Practice Circular no. 05-02(CR))
	☐ Note that any takeover of a business and the tenancy of the business premises is potentially complicated, and comprehensive legal documentation is usually required to give adequate protection to the interests of the parties concerned. A standard tenancy agreement form normally will not suffice.	✓	✓
	☐ If a client indicates his intention to effect a takeover of a business and the tenancy of the business premises, advise the client to seek legal advice before proceeding with the takeover arrangement as the work may fall outside the normal scope of work of an agent (except for the signing of a new tenancy).	✓	✓
4.17	Property Acquisition in Old Buildings for Re-development (🚩The EAA's Practice Circular no. 10-05(CR))
	☐ Make it clear to the vendor if the agent is acting for him, the purchaser, or both of them as soon as practicable.	✓	✓
	☐ If the flat concerned is a residential flat, enter into an Estate Agency Agreement with the clients.	✓	✓

❑ Disclose any potential or actual conflict of interest to the vendors, including but not limited to the following: ◆ The purchaser is: • the agent himself, his nominee, irrespective of whether the purchase is made on his own account or on behalf of a principal; • the company the agent works for, irrespective of whether the purchase is made on the company's own account or on behalf of a principal; or • a company in which the agent/his nominee (or the company for which the agent works, or the directors or shareholders of that company) has a beneficial interest. ◆ Any monetary or other beneficial interest that may be accrued to the agent (or the company or the shareholders / directors of the company for whom the agent works) from any sub-sale of the property.	✓	✓
❑ Ensure that any information provided to vendors is accurate and up-to-date, such as: ◆ the price of other units in the building; ◆ the position of other vendors regarding the acquisition; ◆ the progress of negotiation with other vendors about their acquisition; ◆ the percentage of ownership in the building which has been acquired by the purchaser; ◆ Government's public works projects or other developments in the vicinity which may affect the building, etc.	✓	✓

	Company	Staff
❑ Comply with the following when conducting negotiation: ◆ Do not exercise any undue influence, use any improper tactics (e.g. pestering the vendor with persistent telephone calls at unreasonable hours), or cause any harassment or annoyance to any vendor (e.g. persistent solicitation even though the vendor has no interest in selling his property). ◆ If the vendor is an elderly person, advise him verbally and in writing that he should be accompanied by a family member or a close relative during the negotiation process. Do not start any negotiation with an elderly vendor unless he has expressly stated that it is not necessary for a family member or close relative to be present during the negotiation.	✓	✓
❑ Explain clearly to the vendor all the proposed terms and conditions for the sale and purchase of his flat.	✓	✓
❑ Refrain from arranging for any vendor to give an agent or a prospective purchaser the power of attorney to deal with the sale of his property. Advise the vendor to seek legal advice if he intends to appoint another person to handle the sale of his property.	✓	✓
❑ Prior to the signing of the PASP or any other relevant document, clearly explain all the terms to the vendors and advise them to seek legal advice if necessary.	✓	✓
❑ Ensure that all the necessary information has been entered accurately in the PASP, including details of the property, the parties to the agreement, the price, the terms of acquisition, the purchaser's signature, transaction date etc. with no entries left blank.	✓	✓
❑ Do not leave a PASP or any other agreement signed by the vendor undated. Ensure that the date stated on the agreement and any other documents must be the date on which it was signed by the vendor.	✓	✓

	Company	Staff
☐ Ensure that the purchase price is the true consideration, with no inflation of the amount of other payments (e.g. removal allowance) to reduce the true consideration.	✓	✓
☐ Provide the vendors with a copy of the signed PASP and other relevant documents as soon as practicable after signing.	✓	✓
☐ Obtain written consent from the vendors and other owners of the building before putting up any banner or promotional material on the building.	✓	✓
☐ If persons other than the staff of the company are engaged in the acquisition activities, ensure that they are licensees and have entered into written engagement agreements with the company for conducting the acquisition activities.	✓	✓
☐ Include the following terms in the said engagement agreement entered with other non-staff members for engaging in the acquisition activities: ◆ comply with all the legal and ethical requirements in the same manner as the company staff are required to; ◆ do not make false or misleading representations to the vendor; ◆ comply with the provisions as mentioned in this section; ◆ do not sub-contract the acquisition activities to other persons; and ◆ deploy only licensees who are the staff of the company to conduct the acquisition activities.	✓	✓

	Company	Staff
❑ File a report to the police if any engaged persons are suspected to have used illegal means in the acquisition activities.	✓	✓
❑ Note that if agents assist, encourage or procure any person to commit a criminal offence in the course of the acquisition activities, they may be criminally liable for the same offence.	✓	✓

4.18 Handling of Offers and Negotiation of Terms of Sale and Leasing

❑ Convey all clients' offers (including those offers that are lower than the bottom price specified by the vendor/landlord, or higher than the ceiling price specified by the prospective purchaser/tenant) to the other party of a prospective property transaction (or the agent of the other party) as soon as practicable (🔗 Practice Regulation, Section 11) unless a PASP or tenancy agreement has already been signed for the property.	✓	✓
❑ Confirm the offers conveyed to clients in writing (refer to 📖 RICS REABS Chapter 4).	✓	✓
❑ Confirm in writing any offer / further offer made by the purchaser to the vendor and include in the offer evidence that the agent is acting for the client and send a copy of the confirmation of the offer to the client (refer to 📖 RICS REABS Chapter 5).	✓	✓
❑ Relay all offers to the client truthfully and in accordance with the order of receipt of the offers (🔗 Practice Regulation, Section 11).	✓	✓
❑ Provide clients with sufficient details so as to allow them to make a fully informed judgement of all offers received and each offer's respective strengths and weaknesses, bearing in mind the circumstances of the vendor/landlord when providing the information (refer to 📖 RICS REABS Chapter 4).	✓	✓

	Company	Staff
☐ Provide clients with accurate information, including property prices and rentals, for reference or comparison without any misrepresentation. Under no circumstances should an agent tell his client that there is an offer when in fact there is none ( Practice Regulation, Section 11).	✓	✓
☐ Maintain written records of all verbal and written offers of a property (include the date and time of the offers) as soon as practicable to avoid dispute or confusion ( Practice Regulation, Section 11).	✓	✓
☐ After notifying the vendor/landlord of the offer provided by a prospective purchaser/tenant, confirm with the purchaser/tenant in writing about the notification, the amount of the offer and the conditions attached (refer to  RICS REABS Chapter 4).	✓	✓
☐ Keep seller/landlord informed of the negotiation process and continuously seek their instructions (refer to  RICS REABS Chapter 4).	✓	✓
☐ Once an offer has been accepted by a vendor/landlord, request the vendor/landlord to confirm this in writing and send a copy of the confirmation of the offer to the purchaser/tenant (refer to  RICS REABS Chapter 5).	✓	✓
☐ Obtain the client's consent before releasing any information regarding their personal or financial circumstances to the other party of a transaction (refer to  RICS REABS Chapter 5).	✓	✓
☐ Do not exercise any undue influence or coercion on clients for the purpose of inducing them to enter into an agreement for selling or purchasing, or leasing or renting a property ( Practice Regulation, Section 11).	✓	✓

	Company	Staff
❑ Make a promise (e.g. helping a purchaser or tenant open a new account for the supply of water, electricity or gas) or offer an incentive (e.g. cash rebate) to clients only when it can be fulfilled and the agent has the capacity and capability to do so. Once a promise or incentive has been made, it must be fulfilled. Record all such offers in writing and provide them to the client to enhance his confidence.	✓	✓
❑ When the vendor/landlord accepts an offer and any related conditions, record the details accurately and inform the purchaser/tenant. This must be confirmed in writing to both parties (refer to 📄 RICS REABS Chapter 4).	✓	✓
❑ Maintain regular contact with clients throughout the negotiation process and regularly report the progress to the other party (refer to 📄 RICS REABS Chapter 4).	✓	✓
❑ If the purchaser/tenant applies for any additional services from the agent before completion of the transaction, promptly provide the vendor/landlord with an accurate written list of services applied for (refer to 📄 RICS REABS Chapter 4).	✓	✓
❑ Note that the solicitation or acceptance of any advantage in addition to those stated in the Estate Agency Agreement (including tea money) from clients for assisting them in negotiation (e.g. persuading a purchaser to raise his purchase price) without the prior consent of the parties concerned may constitute an offence under the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance (⚖️ Prevention of Bribery Ordinance).	✓	✓

4.19

Provisional Agreement for Sale and Purchase (“PASP”) or Tenancy Agreement

❑ As PASP are legally binding documents, exercise due care, follow clients’ instructions when drafting the agreements and repeatedly check the accuracy to avoid filling in wrong information. Seek legal advice in case of doubt.	✓	✓
---	---	---

	Company	Staff
❑ Adopt the following measures immediately before the signing of a PASP: ◆ Conduct a land search to obtain up-to-date information of the property and not to rely on any land search obtained earlier (🔗 Practice Regulation, Section 13); ◆ Clearly explain to the purchaser or tenant the information found in the land search (e.g. owner's particulars and encumbrances, etc.); and ◆ Provide the purchaser or tenant with a copy of the land search (🔗 Practice Regulation, Section 13), request him to acknowledge receipt and keep proper custody of the receipt.	✓	✓
❑ Explain to clients each clause of the PASP or tenancy agreement, bring to their attention the meaning of the essential terms and provisions, and recommend that they seek legal advice if they do not understand any part of the agreement (🔗 Practice Regulation, Section 13).	✓	✓
❑ Ensure that any amendment to the PASP or tenancy agreement must be agreed to and fully understood by both parties of the transaction, and countersigned by them in the agreement. The implications of the amendments should also be explained to both parties.	✓	✓
❑ Ensure that the property address stated in the agreement tallies with that obtained from the land search (🔗 The EAA's Practice Circular no. 03-02(CR)).	✓	✓
❑ Clearly indicate the items in the PASP or tenancy agreement (with photographs of the items, as necessary), with the party responsible for the maintenance costs specified (if any) and countersigned by both parties, when the following item(s) is/are sold or leased together with the property: ◆ garden; ◆ car parking space;	✓	✓

◆ rooftop area; ◆ furniture; or ◆ electrical appliances.
❑ Do not arrange for clients to enter into a PASP or tenancy agreement which is blank, undated or backdated, or with essential items (e.g. price, deposit, commission, completion date, etc.) left blank, or when the terms of a transaction have not been agreed to by the two parties (📌 The EAA's Practice Circular no. 03-02(CR)).	✓	✓
❑ Ensure that all the information given in the PASP or tenancy agreement must be true and accurate. It may be a criminal offence for any person to intentionally provide any untrue or inaccurate information.	✓	✓
❑ If the residential property concerned is subject to payment of the Special Stamp Duty ("SSD"), advise the clients (vendor and purchaser who are jointly and severally liable for payment of SSD) to agree on which party should pay the SSD and specify in the PASP their agreement.	✓	✓
❑ If it is agreed that the SSD (or any part thereof, as the case may be) should be paid by the vendor, further advise their clients to specify the necessary arrangements in the PASP (such as having the purchaser's solicitor withhold part of the purchase price for payment of the SSD). Invite their clients to seek legal advice, if necessary, before proceeding with the execution of the PASP (📌 The EAA's Practice Circular no.11-03(CR)).	✓	✓
❑ If the property concerned is held by two or more vendors, ensure that all of them have signed the PASP or tenancy agreement. If one of the vendors is unable to sign the agreement, ensure that he arranges for a Power of Attorney to authorize another person to do it for him (📌 The EAA's Practice Circular no. 01-12(CR)).	✓	✓

❑ For property transactions involving an elderly purchaser who intends to apply for a mortgage loan for the property, advise him of the difficulty he may face in obtaining a bank loan before he enters into a PASP (🔴 The EAA's Practice Circular no. 03-02(CR)).	✓	✓
❑ For the leasing of a mortgaged property, take the following measures before arranging the parties concerned to enter into a tenancy agreement (🔴 The EAA's Practice Circular nos. 01-09 & 03-06(CR)): ◆ Confirm that a written consent has been obtained from the mortgagee (e.g. bank) for leasing the property and explain to the tenant the risks of entering into a tenancy without such a consent; ◆ Encourage the parties to exchange information for mutual trust to facilitate the transaction (e.g. the vendor's mortgage repayment records and the tenant's proof of occupation and income); and ◆ Advise the tenant of the risks involved in case the vendor fails to provide information on the mortgage.	✓	✓
❑ Do not conduct any promotional or marketing activity for a property after a sale and purchase agreement or tenancy agreement (whether provisional or formal) for the property has been signed (🟢 Practice Regulation, Section 13).	✓	✓
❑ After the signing of the PASP or tenancy agreement of a property, do not relay to the property's vendor/landlord any further offers unless so requested by the vendor/landlord (🟢 Practice Regulation, Section 13).	✓	✓
❑ When arranging property clearance with the vendor/landlord, pay attention to relevant environmental requirements (e.g. disposal of waste) (refer to 🔴 RICS REABS Chapter 3).	✓	✓

	Company	Staff
Alienation Restrictions¹⁰ (The EAA's Practice Circular nos. 01-01(CR), 07-04(CR) & 08-08(CR))
☐ Note that certain properties are subject to alienation restrictions, whereby the vendor/landlord is not at liberty to alienate or lease his property. The sale and purchase or lease transactions of such properties may involve special procedures and/or forms.	✓	✓
☐ Exercise due care for properties subject to alienation restrictions and take proper action to protect the interest of clients (e.g. confirm whether a land premium has been paid) before any agreement is reached.	✓	✓
☐ Refrain from aiding or abetting a vendor/landlord in selling/letting a property in circumstances which may infringe the law. Keep abreast of the latest arrangements and requirements, and seek legal advice in case of doubt.	✓	✓
Existing Encumbrances
☐ Draw clients' attention to the existing encumbrances of a property and advise them to seek legal advice before entering into a PASP.	✓	✓
☐ If a purchaser or tenant decides to proceed with the purchase or renting despite the existing encumbrances, obtain his written acknowledgement that he is aware of all the existing encumbrances and has been advised to seek legal advice but has decided to proceed with the transaction.	✓	✓
☐ Record in the PASP the existing encumbrances (e.g. court orders, building orders), and, subject to client's instruction, include in the agreement provisions on whose liability to discharge the existing encumbrances.	✓	✓

¹⁰ These restrictions may apply to flats purchased under the various subsidy schemes of the Hong Kong Housing Authority and Hong Kong Housing Society (e.g. Home Ownership Scheme, Private Sector Participation Scheme, Sandwich Class Housing Scheme, Flat-for-Sale Scheme, Tenant Purchase Scheme, etc.), the small houses of indigenous villagers in the New Territories, flats of the Co-operative Building Societies of government employees.

4.20 Identity of Clients
❑ Verify the identity of clients (e.g. obtain the identity card if the vendor is an individual, check carefully the name of the vendor on the identity card or identification document against the name of the owner as recorded in the land search) before arranging for the signing of any document concerning the property (e.g. a PASP or tenancy agreement) and properly keep such information (🔗 Practice Regulation, Section 13).	✓	✓
❑ When acting for the purchaser and the identity of the vendor cannot be verified, advise the purchaser to arrange for the stakeholding of the deposit by a firm of solicitors, and also advise the purchaser of the risks involved and of the need to engage the service of a lawyer before proceeding with the transaction (🔗 The EAA's Practice Circular no. 09-08(CR)).	✓	✓
❑ If agents have reason to suspect that the vendor is a fraudster, cease to act for the parties and report the case to the Police (🔗 The EAA's Practice Circular no. 09-08(CR)).	✓	✓
Legal Capacity of a Client
❑ Check to confirm that the signatory for any document for a property transaction is at least 18 years of age (otherwise, the document or agreement signed may be invalid) (🔗 The EAA's Practice Circular no. 03-02(CR)).	✓	✓
❑ Ensure that the signatory is the vendor of a property for sale, or that the signatory has been properly authorized to sign on behalf of the vendor in a transaction.	✓	✓
❑ If someone is signing on behalf of a client, request the representative to produce a duly executed power of attorney.	✓	✓

☐ Verify the signatory's capacity by conducting a company search or obtaining authorization documentation (e.g. board resolution).	✓	✓
☐ Verify the signatory's identity and show his name legibly below his signature.	✓	✓
☐ Ensure that a chop of the company is stamped on the document signed, or the words "For and on behalf of xxx Limited" are written against the signature.	✓	✓
☐ Advise clients to make payments to the company directly by cheque or cashier order in favour of the company and not to the signatory personally.	✓	✓
☐ Explain to clients the risks involved if the signatory cannot provide satisfactory proof of authorization and is not a director of the company, and advise them to pay the deposit to a firm of solicitors for stakeholding and seek legal advice if necessary.	✓	✓
☐ Obtain from clients a written acknowledgement of receiving and understanding the above advice to avoid future disputes.	✓	✓

4.21 Co-operation Agreement

- | | | |
|---|---|---|

| ☐ Obtain prior approval from a designated staff member for entering into a co-operation agreement with another company. | ✓ | ✓ |

	Company	Staff
☐ Pre-approve the companies (usually estate agencies) with which the estate agency may enter into a co-operation agreement without seeking approval on a case by case basis. If other companies refer clients to the estate agency, approval from a designated authority for the co-operation is required.	✓
☐ Note that it is a criminal offence to fraudulently claim that a client is referred by another agency/company so as to mislead the estate agency to enter into a co-operation agreement with the other agency/company and share with it the commission received from the client.	✓	✓

4.22 Deposits for Property Transactions

☐ Do not suggest or request a prospective purchaser/tenant to pay any deposit or “earnest money” before reaching an agreement with the vendor/landlord.	✓	✓
☐ Require clients to pay deposits by cheque as far as possible and avoid accepting payment by cash.	✓	✓
☐ If deposit payments are received and held for clients, put the money into a trust account at an authorized institution and issue a receipt to the clients.	✓	✓
☐ When the company has set up a trust account at an authorized institution, adopt the following measures (⚙️ Practice Regulation, Section 12): ◆ If deposit payments are received and held for clients, put the money into the trust account within a specified time frame to minimize risks of embezzlement. ◆ Before releasing deposit money to a vendor/landlord, ensure that the identity of the vendor/landlord is the same as the owner of the property. If they are different, ensure that the vendor/landlord is authorized to sell or lease the property. ◆ If a property transaction is called off, return any deposit held by the company to the client as soon as practicable.	✓	✓

	Company	Staff

❑ For a sale and purchase transaction involving a property subject to an undischarged mortgage: ◆ Before signing a PASP (📌 The EAA's Practice Circular no. 05-07(CR)): • explain to the purchaser client the meaning of any deposit stakeholding provision pre-printed on the agreement, the implications and risks of deleting the said provision (including the risks of paying deposits directly to the vendor); • advise the purchaser client to have the deposits (both the initial and further deposits) stakeheld by a firm of solicitors; • explain to both the vendor and purchaser the implications of the stakeholding arrangement and the conditions for the release of the deposits by the stakeholder; and ◆ If there is no stakeholding of deposits in the transaction, obtain a written acknowledgement from both parties that they have been advised of the deposit stakeholding arrangements and the risks of not including such stakeholding arrangements in the PASP.	✓	✓

	Company	Staff
☐ Do not use clients' money for payment of the company's expenses or other purposes. Do not deduct or withhold part or all of the clients' money to offset any commission (🚫 The EAA's Practice Circular no. 02-10(CR)).	✓	✓
☐ Do not advance money to a client to assist him in paying a deposit to the vendor or landlord to avoid disputes.	✓	✓

(🔄 Chapter 5.3)

4.23 Commission from Clients

☐ Comply with the company's procedures for handling commission payable by clients, including the negotiation of commission with clients and receipt of commission from clients.		✓
☐ When accepting a client's appointment, enter into an estate agency agreement with him and clearly explain to him that there is no statutory stipulation on the amount or rate of the commission payable, and the circumstances under which the commission is payable.	✓	✓
☐ Discuss with the client the amount or rate of commission payable and the payment time. Clearly record them in estate agency agreements and the PASP/tenancy agreements.	✓	✓
☐ If acting as a dual agent in a property transaction, disclose to both parties the amount or rate of commission charged, and obtain the approval of the company and a written consent from both parties to the transaction if there is any subsequent change.	✓	✓
☐ Do not ask clients to make any commission payment in advance.	✓	✓
☐ Encourage clients to pay the commission by crossed cheques made payable to the company as far as possible, and advise them of this arrangement when or before the PASP is signed.	✓	✓

	Company	Staff
☐ Refrain from requesting clients to pay commission partially or entirely by cash, or to the agents personally, or other estate agencies/ other companies in which the agents have a beneficial or pecuniary interest.	✓	✓

☐ If additional commission or any other advantage other than that specified in the agreement is offered by clients, report the case to designated supervisory staff according to the laid-down policy and procedures. If acting as a dual agent in a property transaction, obtain the prior consent of all parties to the transaction before accepting any additional advantage; otherwise one may be guilty of an offence under the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance ( Prevention of Bribery Ordinance).	✓	✓

☐ Prescribe the procedures for handling arrears in commission (e.g. assign staff who are not responsible for receiving commission to trace outstanding payments) and taking follow-up actions with the clients concerned.	✓

Recovery of Outstanding Debts (🔗 The EAA's Practice Circular no. 08-04(CR))

☐ If a client fails to make payment to the company within the time period specified in the terms of engagement and/or on the invoice, adopt the following measures:	✓	✓
◆ Remind the client in writing that the debt is outstanding and give him a further reasonable period for payment. If any interest is to be charged, state this in the letter (refer to 🔗 RICS REABS Chapter 8). ◆ If the client still does not make payment upon the issuing of the above letter, follow up with a telephone call to make sure that the client has received the invoice and to agree when this will be paid (refer to 🔗 RICS REABS Chapter 8). ◆ If the client still does not make payment, consider taking legal advice or alternatively, consider negotiation, mediation, conciliation and arbitration (refer to 🔗 RICS REABS Chapter 8).
☐ Maintain contact with the client no matter which method is used to recover outstanding debt and try to negotiate a payment plan if it is noted that the client is undergoing financial difficulties (refer to 🔗 RICS REABS Chapter 8).	✓	✓
☐ Seek advice from legal advisers before taking any legal action (refer to 🔗 RICS REABS Chapter 8).	✓	✓
☐ Do not use unlawful means to recover debt from clients.	✓	✓

	Company	Staff
❑ Before engaging a debt-collection company to recover overdue payment from clients, issue a final written demand to the clients stipulating a deadline for payment warning them that a debt-collection company will be engaged if no payment is received by the deadline.	✓	✓
❑ In appointing a debt-collection company, enter into a written agreement with it and specify the requirements on its conduct in debt collection, including the prohibition against any verbal or physical intimidation or force against any person, harassment to the debtor or his family member (including humiliating him publicly) or seizure or damaging the debtor's property.	✓
❑ Monitor the conduct of the debt-collection company in its performance of the agreement and act promptly on receipt of complaints against it.	✓

4.25 Referral of Business

❑ Comply with the company's policy as to whether staff are allowed to accept any advantage for referral of business to banks, renovation contractors, etc.		✓
❑ If agents are allowed to accept an advantage for referral of business to third parties, seek permission from both the company and the clients involved for accepting such advantages. 	Company	Staff
❑ Obtain clients' explicit and voluntary consent before releasing their personal information to any service provider.	✓	✓

Introduction

1. (The name of estate agency) (hereafter referred to as the Company) regards honesty, integrity and fair play as our core values that must be upheld by all directors and staff¹¹ of the Company at all times. This Code sets out the basic standard of conduct expected of all directors (if applicable) and staff, and the Company's policy on acceptance of advantage and handling of conflict of interest when dealing with the Company's business.

Prevention of BriberyPrevention of Bribery Ordinance

2. Under the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance (the Ordinance), any director or staff member who, without the permission of his employer or principal (i.e. the Company and client), solicits or accepts an advantage as a reward or inducement for doing any act or showing favour in relation to the latter's business, commits an offence. The person offering the advantage also commits an offence.

(The relevant provisions of Section 9 of the Ordinance and the definition of "advantage" are detailed at Annex 1.)

Acceptance of Advantage

3. It is the Company's policy that directors and staff, in their private capacity, should not solicit or accept an advantage from any person, company or organization having business dealings with the Company, except that they may accept (but not solicit) the following advantages when offered on a voluntary basis:

- (a) advertising or promotional gifts or souvenirs of a nominal value; or
- (b) gifts given on festive or special occasions, subject to a maximum limit of $_____ in value; or
- (c) discounts or other special offers given by any person or company to them as customers, on terms and conditions equally applicable to other customers in general; or
- (d) gifts or souvenirs of nominal value presented to them in official functions.

No director or staff member should, in his/her private capacity, accept any advantage from a subordinate, except those mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) above.

¹¹ "Staff" cover full-time, part-time and temporary staff, except where specified.

4. Gifts or souvenirs described in paragraph 3(d) above are deemed as offers to the Company. The directors and staff members concerned should report the acceptance to the Company and seek direction as to how to handle the gifts or souvenirs from *the approving authority*¹² using Form A (Annex 2). If a director or staff member wishes to accept any advantage not covered in paragraph 3, he/she should also seek permission from the approving authority using Form A.

5. However, a director or staff member should decline an offer of advantage if acceptance could affect his/her objectivity in conducting the Company's business or induce him/her to act against the interest of the Company, or acceptance will likely lead to perception or allegation of impropriety.

6. If a director or staff member has to act on behalf of a client in the course of carrying out the Company's business, he/she should also comply with any additional restrictions on acceptance of advantage that may be set by the client.

Offer of Advantage

7. Directors and staff are prohibited from offering advantages to any director or staff of another company or organization, for the purpose of influencing such person or company in any dealings, or any public official, whether directly or indirectly through a third party, when conducting the Company's business.

Entertainment

8. As defined in Section 2 of the Ordinance, "entertainment" refers to food or drink provided for immediate consumption on the occasion, and any other entertainment provided at the same time. Although entertainment is an acceptable form of business and social behaviour, a director or staff member should avoid accepting overly lavish or frequent entertainment from persons with whom the Company has business dealings (e.g. suppliers or contractors) or from his/her subordinates to avoid placing himself/herself in a position of obligation.

Records, Accounts and other Documents

9. Directors and staff should ensure that all records, receipts, accounts or other documents they submit to the Company, give a true representation of the events or business transactions as shown in the documents. Intentional use of documents containing false information to deceive or mislead the Company, regardless of whether there is any gain or advantage involved, may constitute an offence under the Ordinance.

¹² Specify the post of the approving authority in the Code and the Form.

Compliance with Laws of Hong Kong and in Other Jurisdictions

10. Directors or staff must comply with all local laws and regulations when conducting the Company's business, and also those in other jurisdictions when conducting business there.

Conflict of Interest

11. Directors and staff should avoid any conflict of interest situation (i.e. situation where their private interest conflicts with the interest of the Company) or the perception of such conflicts. They should not misuse their position or authority in the Company to pursue their own private interests which include both financial or personal interests and those of their family members, relatives or close personal friends. When actual or potential conflict of interest arises, the director or staff member should make a declaration to the management through the reporting channel using Form B (Annex 3).

12. Some common examples of conflict of interest are described below but they are by no means exhaustive:

- (a) An estate agent handles a property transaction in which he, his relative or his friend has a pecuniary or beneficial interest in the property.
- (b) A staff member involved in a procurement exercise is closely related to or has financial interest in the business of a supplier who is being considered for selection by the Company.
- (c) One of the candidates under consideration in a recruitment or promotion exercise is a family member, a relative or a close personal friend of the staff member involved in the process.

Use of Company Assets

13. Directors and staff in charge of or having access to any Company assets, including funds, property, information, and intellectual property, should use them solely for the purpose of conducting the Company's business. Unauthorized use, such as misuse for personal gain, is strictly prohibited.

Confidentiality of Information

14. Directors and staff should not disclose any classified information of the Company without authorization or misuse any Company information (e.g. unauthorized sale of the information). Those who have access to or are in control of such information, including information in the Company's computer system, should at all times protect the information from unauthorized disclosure or misuse. Special care should also be taken in the use of any personal data, including directors', staff's and customers' personal data, to ensure compliance with the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance.

Outside Employment

15. Any full time staff who wish to take up employment outside the Company, must seek the prior written approval of the approving authority, (post of designated senior staff). The approving authority should consider whether the outside employment would give rise to a conflict of interest with the staff's duties or the interest of the Company.

Relationship with Suppliers, Contractors and Customers

Gambling

16. Directors and staff are advised not to engage in frequent gambling activities (e.g. mahjong) with persons having business dealings with the Company.

Loans

17. Directors and staff should not accept any loan from, or through the assistance of, any individual or organization having business dealings with the Company. There is however no restriction on borrowing from licensed banks or financial institutions.

[The Company may wish to include other guidelines on the conduct required of directors and staff in their dealings with suppliers, contractors, customers, and other business partners as appropriate to specific trades.]

Compliance with the Code

18. It is the responsibility of every director and staff member of the Company to understand and comply with this Code, whether performing his company duties in or outside Hong Kong. Managers and supervisors should also ensure that the staff under their supervision understand well and comply with this Code.

19. Any director or staff member in breach of this Code will be subject to disciplinary action, including termination of appointment. In cases of suspected corruption, a report will be made to the ICAC, and of other criminal offences, to the appropriate authority.

20. Any enquiries about this Code or reports of possible breaches of this Code should be made to (post of designated senior staff).

SIGNS OF POSSIBLE IRREGULARITIES CONCERNING STAFF

Estate agencies should raise staff awareness of the potential risk of corruption and malpractice and provide them with guidance on the identification of the risk indicators. The following are some signs of possible irregularities or conditions of staff which may warrant the attention of the management.

Work Practices and Situations

- Insisting on performing a number of important tasks voluntarily, resulting in a lack of segregation of duties and the staff maintaining tight control over a process.
- Resisting to their work being reviewed by an independent party.
- Failing to maintain proper records or take actions as required (e.g. disclose conflict of interest situations to clients).
- Habitually deviating from the laid-down procedures, or a supervisor frequently exercising discretion to override controls with various excuses.
- Habitually providing excuses for their under-performance, frequent reduction in commission payable by their clients, or frequent revoking of transactions.
- Significant increase of complaints about the services provided by an estate agent, or notable decrease in his service quality.

Staff Personal Behaviour

- Having an extravagant lifestyle not commensurate with their income.
- Sudden changing of lifestyle or spending habit, e.g. new luxury car, new expensive accessories (e.g. watch), etc.
- Maintaining close relationship with clients or business partners, e.g. frequently take private pleasure trips with the staff of a client company.
- Accepting frequent or lavish entertainment from persons with official dealings, e.g. meals, visits to night clubs, karaokes, massage parlours, etc.
- Easily irritated, overly reactive or defensive to simple enquiry about work or conduct.
- Signs of depression, constant state of stress, pressure or tenseness.
- Signs of financial distress or indebtedness, e.g. calls or fax messages from a debt-collection agency or frequent borrowing from colleagues.
